

"5 DAYS IN JUNE"

The Lincoln Hotel, LN2 1PN
12.00 - 14.30 in The Lincoln Suite

FRIDAY 18th NOVEMBER

On Friday 18th November Karl M^cCartney, the Member of Parliament for Lincoln and a recently elected Member of the Exiting the EU Select Committee, will be hosting a Business Lunch at The Lincoln Hotel with his Parliamentary colleague Jake Berry MP who was at the heart of The Rt. Hon. Boris Johnson MP's Leadership Campaign.

Jake's talk "5 days in June" will reveal some of the behind the scenes actions and consequences following the resignation of The Rt. Hon. David Cameron MP as Prime Minister. That decision rapidly led to Boris' declaration as one of the Leadership Candidates, followed just days later by his unexpected withdrawal from the Campaign and then the subsequent exciting and quickly reached conclusion for the Nation of our new Prime Minister, The Rt. Hon. Theresa May MP.

Do join us for this Business Lunch at 12.30. Ask some of those questions we all want to know the answers to, from a Parliamentarian who was at the very centre of the campaign and on the shoulder of a key player during this momentous event in British Politics.

Tickets are £25 per person for Lunch & Coffee with payment required by Monday 14th November.

Jake Berry

Conservative Member of Parliament for Rossendale & Darwen

Jake was educated at Liverpool College, followed by the University of Sheffield, and trained as a solicitor in the City of London.

Before becoming a Member of Parliament for Rossendale and Darwen in 2010, Jake specialised in Housing and Development Law. This valuable experience has enabled him to effectively champion affordable housing and the Construction Sector within the House of Commons.

Jake was appointed as Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Rt Hon. Grant Shapps MP, Minister for Housing and Local Government in 2010. In September 2012 Grant was appointed Conservative Party Chairman with Jake remaining as his PPS.

In April 2013, Jake was asked by the Prime Minister to join his influential Policy Board and advise him on housing, local government and regional growth in Downing Street.

In May 2015 Jake was appointed as Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Rt Hon. Greg Hands MP, Chief Secretary to the Treasury.
